

News

THE XXXVITH CONFERENCE OF THE INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC HEALTH IASI
21-24 SEPTEMBER 2005

Between 21st and 24th of September 2005 the XXXVIth Conference of the Institute of Public Health Iasi was held in Iasi. The theme of the Conference was: "75 Years of Public Health in Iasi".

The Conference included oral presentation, poster presentations, round tables, one workshop. The topics were structured on four sections:

1) Epidemiology, Public Health, Microbiology, 2) Environmental and Human Colectivities Medicine, 3) Occupational Medicine, 4) Radiation Hygiene.

Specialists from the Ministry of Health – General Direction for European Integration and External Relationships, from regional Institutes of Public Health, Districts Directions of Public Health, Cantacuzino Institute – Reference Centres, Universities of Medicine, and other medical units brought their input to the successful progress of the Conference. Distinguished personalities of the medical world attended the Conference as invited speakers. Thus, the Conference was

.....Sfârșit de coloană.....

.....honoured by Professor Dr. W. Au - University of Texas Medical Branch and Dr. Arthur Frank - Drexell University School of Public Health, Philadelphia, USA, Dr. A. Carere - Sanitary Superior Institute of Rome, Italy

The Epidemiology, Public Health and Microbiology Section included, beside others, a session of plenary lectures with the theme "The Communitarian Program of Action in the Field of Public Health" and a round tables on the "New Perspectives for the Non-infectious Diseases Integrated Approaches".

The Environmental and Human Colectivities Medicine Section included a session of plenary lectures with the subject "Five Years of Public Health Surveillance in Moldavian Region in Collaboration with the Specialised Services from the Districts Directorate of Public Health".

The Occupational Health Section included a workshop with the theme "The Occupational Medicine Services – Present and Perspectives in the context of

.....Sfârșit de secțiune (Continuu).....

News

European Integration” and two round tables with the subjects “Health Protection against Electromagnetic Fields – Present Situation and Future Trends” and “Biological Monitoring of the Occupational Exposure”

-----Sfârșit de secțiune (Continuu)-----

In parallel with the above mentioned scientific meetings, the medical technicians had their own sessions of oral and poster presentation centred on the medical technician role for the successful progress National Programs of the Ministry of Health.

-----Sfârșit de coloană-----

The Conference generated fruitful debates and discussions, facilitating useful exchange of experience among participants.

Elena Crucerescu
Institute of Public Health Iasi